SERVICE TO THE ACADEMIC COMMUNITY

- 2022- Vice President Internal Relations, Academy of International Business (AIB). In this role, I am responsible for the organization and co-ordination of joint activities between the Research Methods SIG and 13 different Regional Chapters and six SIGs of AIB. I also serve AIB as panel chair, panelist, speaker in JIBS PDWs, track chair and reviewer. I systematically deliver research methods clinics for AIB Conferences in 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023. I also engage actively with the AIB UK&I chapter. I regularly participate in Female Mentoring Events organized by WAIB.
- 2022- Co- Chair, Danny Van Den Bulcke Doctoral Symposium, European Academy of International Business (EIBA). I serve as Co-Chair (with Marina Papanastassiou) of the Danny Van Den Bulcke Doctoral Symposium of EIBA (2022-). This role involves organizing a Symposium for doctoral researchers in the early phases of the PhD process. It entails the collection and review of doctoral proposals, invitation of speakers and discussants for the Symposium and timetabling of the event. Aside from this role, I systematically contribute to EIBA serving as panel chair, panelist, speaker in JIBS PDWs, track chair and reviewer in the annual conferences. From 2018 onwards, I contribute to EIBA's post-conference events by delivering (together with C. Welch, R. Piekkari E. Paavilainen-Mäntymäki) training on Qualitative Methods. I regularly participate in Female Mentoring Events organized by the community. Emmanuella has also served as member of the organizing committee for the EIBA, 2019 conference hosted by Leeds University Business School, UK.
- 2017- 2020 Chair, Northern Advanced Research Training Initiative (NARTI). NARTI is a network of 18 business and management schools in the North of England who collaborate to provide advanced research training for postgraduate and early career researchers. As NARTI Chair, I am responsible for leading strategic planning and delivery of strategic priorities; identifying and allocating resources; engaging in ongoing analysis of existing and emerging pockets of expertise in social science research skills and methods across all institutional members, so ensuring each member contributes fully to a widening and deepening of research excellence. I am also in charge of making connections with internationally recognised scholars to run advanced specialist training; supporting the development of early-mid career researchers through programme design, delivery and evaluation; improving connectivity and communication with institutions, Deans and stakeholders and liaising with member institutions regarding previous years' activity and current membership subscription levels.

Co-Chair, International Business/International Management Special Interest Group of the British Academy of Management (BAM), UK.

As a key feature of this role, I provide, on behalf of BAM, input into consultation requests from Research Councils and other major research funding bodies, such as the Academy of International Business, UKI; offer expertise in REF consultation processes with the learned societies; provide advice in nomination of the REF panel within the area of IB; and, serve as an IB subject expert. Second, due to my visibility in the IB field and as a qualitative methods scholar, I regularly organize special panels, paper development workshops and training on methods in the key academic IB/IM SIG and BAM events.

Further leadership roles in the British Academy of Management (BAM). I have engaged in the following leadership roles: 1) Treasurer of the IB/IM SIG (2015-2016) 2) Co-Chair, BAM Continental Network (2020-2022), 3) Member of BAM Council (2021-2023).
